

FEAST OF YOUR LIFE: MEMOIR WRITING AND ART MAKING - April 13-20, 2024
REGISTRATION

We'll be together at Casa Colonial from Saturday supper (4/13) through Saturday breakfast (4/20), with meeting times and spaces announced when we are together. You will leave satiated with fine food, with new writing and art skills, with a book of your own showing your work from the workshop, with an extensive bibliography of resources, and with new friends - because there is no better way to make friends than creating and feasting together around the table.

$2000 fee includes double occupancy lodging for 7 nights, 7 cooked-to-order breakfasts plus 9 additional meals, a walking tour of Oaxaca, 2 day-trips to markets and villages beyond Oaxaca, an afternoon of marketing and cooking with Chef Bill Smith, and of course all instruction (7 sessions) and materials. Never fear - we have built in some free time for you to explore more of Oaxaca, nearby ancient ruins, more artisans, or mezcal distilleries on your own.

Sign up with a friend! Most rooms are double occupancy. (Roommate assigned if no preference given). Register as soon as possible as space is limited to 12, with a minimum of 6. A $250 deposit (nonrefundable unless we can fill your place) secures your registration. Full remainder of payment is due March 1, 2024. If the program is cancelled or postponed by us, due to enrollment level or other unforeseeable circumstances, all fees will be refunded in full. Fees do not include airfare, liquor, or personal expenses. Please be fully vaccinated and boosted.

The Oaxaca airport is Oaxaca Xoxocotlán International Airport.

Oaxaca is a walking city and the Casa is walking distance to the city center and many restaurants and museums. The city is hilly, and the altitude is 5100 feet, so come with vigor and be prepared to walk!

There are a limited number of single rooms for a $250 single room supplement.
